The German Law and Economics Association (Gesellschaft für Recht und Ökonomik e.V, GLEA) invites paper submissions for the 14th Annual Conference of the German Law and Economics Association.

scheduled for July 21+22, 2016, to take place at the Andrássy University, Budapest.
The local organizer is Prof. Dr. Martina Eckart (Faculty of International Relations).

The keynote lecture will be delivered by Prof. Shubha Ghosh, PhD, JD, Vilas Research Fellow & George Young Bascom Professor in Business Law, University of Wisconsin Law School, on:

“Intellectual Property Rights: Precedent, Reliance, and Bad Rules”

We appreciate submissions of full papers or paper drafts on any topic regarding the Economic Analysis of Law. Submission of extended abstracts is acceptable, but priority will be given to complete paper drafts. We explicitly encourage submissions by young researchers at the PhD level to present and discuss their work in front of more experienced Law and Economics scholars. The conference language is English.

If you want to submit your manuscript please send an email with a PDF version (other file formats will not be processed) to the following email address: kirstein@glea.de
Please list in your email the name(s), affiliation(s), and email contacts of the author(s), and please indicate who will likely be the presenter of the paper, if accepted. The deadline for submission is January 31, 2016. Acceptance decisions will be communicated in February. If your paper gets accepted for presentation, you need to send the completed manuscript to the commentator (who will be assigned to you) no later than June 10, 2015.
Should you plan to participate without presenting a paper, please register by writing an email to the local organizer (glea@andrassyuni.hu) no later than May 10, 2016. Regardless of whether they present a paper, all participants are requested to act as a commentator.

Travel and accommodation cost have to be borne by the participants, who have to make their travel arrangements and hotel reservations on their own. Detailed information on the registration procedure, the preliminary program, as well as accommodation and travel suggestions will be communicated from February 2016 on.

Each participant will have to transfer a participation fee of € 100 to the account of GLEA/GRÖ e.V. prior to the registration.

As in the previous years, the German Law and Economics Association might be able to reimburse a part of the expenses of younger researchers who do not have access to travel budgets at their universities. If you are interested in this, please indicate your prospective expenses for travel and accommodation when submitting your paper.

During the conference, the annual meeting of GLEA/GRÖ e.V. will be held. For information about past annual conferences of GLEA, please check http://glea.de I’m looking forward to meeting you in Budapest!

Cordially,

Prof. Dr. Roland Kirstein
President of the German Law and Economics Association
Gesellschaft für Recht und Ökonomik e.V.
