

Conference on Recent Trends in Law and Economics

Berlin, November 30, - December 1, 2007

Humboldt Universitaet Berlin | School of Law | Room 124 | Beginning on 1.00 p.m.

This conference is the fifth annual workshop of the "Gesellschaft für Recht und Ökonomik" (German Association of Law and Economics). It should provide a forum of interdisciplinary discussion between international scholars in the field of Law and Economics.

Participants listed in alphabetical order / Preliminary papers:

- | | |
|---|---|
| Bigus, Jochen | "Wirtschaftsprüfung bei unpräzisen Sorgfaltsstandards und Ambiguitätsaversion" |
| Friehe, Tim | "Accident Diversion: Considering victim Interdependency" |
| Gelter, Martin | "A Theory on the Impact of Sheholder Control and Ownership Concentration on Corporate Stakeholders, or: Team Production meets Comparative Corporate Governance" |
| Grechtenig, Kristoffel R. | "Complementary Mechanisms to Disclosure Duties: An Analysis of Whistleblowing & Insider Trading" |
| Kammel, Arnim | Governance of Financial Regulation and Supervision in Europe
- Some ideas from Law & Economics |
| Kirstein, Roland
und
Wangenheim, Georg v. | "The Condorcet Jury Theorem with Two Independent Error Probabilities" |
| Kumar, Vikas | Inclusiveness of Democracies and Constitutional Amendment Rules |
| Mehra, Poonam | "Choice between Capital and Merger" |