

German Law and Economics Association
8th Annual Conference*December 3rd and 4th, 2010, Wiesbaden, Germany*CALL FOR PAPERS

The German Law and Economics Association (GLEA) will hold its 8th Annual Conference on December 3rd and 4th, 2010 at EBS Business School in Wiesbaden, Germany.

Submissions

Those interested in presenting a paper are invited to submit a title and abstract by e-mail to glea2010@ebs.edu.

On account of a funding application deadline with the Thyssen Stiftung, the submission deadline is August 15th, 2010.

Papers may be on any topic in or related to Law and Economics with particular emphasis on:

- European and International Law and Economics
- Torts and Crimes
- Corporate Law & Economics & Corporate Governance
- Market and Non-market Regulation
- Behavioral Law and Economics
- Bankruptcy and Financial Regulation
- Property, including Intellectual Property
- Contracts and Contractual Regulation
- Legal Rule-making, including Litigation
- Law and Public Policy
- Constitutional and Administrative Law and Economics

The abstract should be in English and include keywords, JEL classification and contact informations (incl. author's name, e-mail, phone, adress and current academic or professional position).

The conference is organised by Prof. Dominique Demougin, Ph.D., EBS Business School, Department of Governance & Economics.

GLEA Board Members:

Prof. Dr. Georg v. Wangenheim (University Kassel, President); Prof. Dr. Roland Kirstein (Otto-v. Guericke University, Vice President); Prof. Dr. Thomas Eger, (University Hamburg, Treasurer); Prof. Dominique Demougin, Ph.D. (EBS Universität für Wirtschaft u. Recht i. Gr., Board Member)

Contact:

Gabriella Zopcsak, EBS Business School, Department of Governance & Economics,
Phone: +49 611/ 7102-1532, e-mail: glea2010@ebs.edu.